Fritz family and Hagan family will be traveling with Fletcher Church on a medical and construction mission to Kenya in March. They have a group of 40 in total and are in need of large suitcases or duffel bags. If anyone is willing to donate these to be left in Kenya it would be appreciated.

If you feel called to pray for our church - Every Sabbath morning the deacons have the church opened by 8:30. If you would like a time to bless and be blessed by prayer, you are welcome to come and go through the church, praying for God's blessing on people who will be meeting in the various rooms later that day. This won't be an organized prayer walk, but it is a time when any member can come before services to pray for our church and members.

Kids in Palau - Do you have children's books lying around that you're willing to donate? Pen Braister-Sturgis is collecting animal, geography, kids, and bible story books to send to Brittany in Palau for her 5th grade class who do not currently have a school library. There is a box in the lobby behind the literature desk marked "Books for Palau" where you can leave your donations. Contact Pen for questions.
